Church, School Groups Tackle Juvenile Problems

The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

We were interested in the report of an official of the S. D. Planning Commission in which he recommended to the City Council that they refuse any possible request from the unincorporated area of L. G. should they ask to be annexed to San Diego.

He gave as one of his reasons the fact that L. G. would need a $100,000.00 Fire House. As a member of the Fire Commission may we say that the gentleman is undoubtedly correct. We would need a new Fire house to protect some of the outlying unprotected areas now lying within the corporate limits of San Diego. It is interesting to note that our Fire rating is better now than in certain areas of S. D. and a still better rating for our district is now under survey by the Pacific Board of Underwriters.

—ML—

We have just received the monthly Fire report for July submitted by Chief Hensley. We think it more than mere coincidence that in the month of July last year there were thirty-nine fires presumably started by juveniles through the careless use of matches, etc. while this year only two fires were caused by such means. The coincidence referred to is the fact that this year Chief Hensley, his men and our local school personnel have worked together in organizing an educational Fire Prevention Program for the youngsters. The development of a Junior Fire Cheif's organization has been of inestimable value also.

—ML—

All of which proves, we think, what can be done by youth groups constructively working with interested adult supervision. Youth centers are fine but not worth a nickel unless the community thinks enough of its future to work together with its young people.

—ML—

May we say too, that in this community we are extremely proud of our local judge Luther Hussey. The Judge has served notice that he is going to do all that is in his power to keep our town free of crime. However, the County's refusal to give us adequate police protection has complicated the problems facing the Court. Particularly as far as juvenile cases are concerned and the Judge has asked the help of the Clergy, P-TA and School Officials in finding a solution. And while much has been said about our organized community, it organizes in a hurry when the need arises. Meanwhile, Judge, we are complimenting you on the fine job you are doing.

Chamber to Sponsor Public Meeting Aug. 17

A public meeting has been set for Tuesday evening, August 17, at the Junior High School Cafetorium by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce to consider the future type of government for the community.

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. and a panel, selected by the chamber, will discuss the problems involved in various types of government and answer all questions. Speakers had not been designated at press time but Chamber of Commerce president Zelda Vernier said that an attempt would be made to give an unbiased and unprejudiced report on various possibilities for Lemon Grove's future makeup.

The chamber meanwhile voted to endorse incorporation at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday.

President Vernier said that a Spring Valley resident had recntly contacted her with the suggestion that Spring Valley and Lemon Grove resolve their problems in concert. It was suggested that the two communities incorporate and re-name the area Spring Grove. Mrs. Vernier said that this appeared a sensible approach and that she would encourage its development.

Mrs. Vernier also stated that Lee Thompson, who at one time headed a small group to oppose a former attempt to incorporate had rejected an offer to appear at the chamber meeting Tuesday to discuss rejection of incorporation. She said that Thompson "was not taking either side."

A turn-out of some 500 persons is expected. It is not necessary to be associated with the chamber to attend the public meeting, Mrs. Vernier said. Everyone interested in civic affairs should attend, she added.

Men's Club Members Nix Status Quo

Members of the Lemon Grove Men's Club decided Friday that Lemon Grove could no longer remain in its present condition of governmental impotency and by a show of hands gave up any further consideration of the community remaining as an unincorporatad county area.

At the same time, chairman of the committee to seek information on annexation to San Diego, John Dail, turned in his resignation with a stinging rebuke to San Diego city officials for failure to produce a survey which they originally said would be available "on short notice."

Several months have passed since O. K. Cope, assistant to the San Diego city manager, promised the survey and all that has come from them is a map which proposes to take Lemon Grove only as far as Grove Street.

"Harry Haelsig, assistant city planning director, released a statement to the Union-Tribune in which he criticized our streets, fire department and the low tax return we would give San Diego. Haelsig did not mention gasoline or in-lieu taxes which would amount to as much as Haelsig says Lemon Grove would produce under annexation," Dail charged.

Haelsig had reported to the city planning commission that Lemon Grove's $12 and one half million dollar assessed valuation would produce only $185 thousand at the present city tax rate of $1.76.

Haelsig also reported that it would cost $87,000 for policing Lemon Grove; $9,000 for lighting; $100 thousand for a new firehouse to replace the present nearly new one and $50 thousand annually for firemen's salaries. He also said that only 3.2 miles of Lemon Grove's streets were of adequate width.

Haelsig's statements were discussed amid considerable consternation at the meeting. Chairman of the day Harry Griffen said that the group could not act as a unit but individually members could. By a show of hands the members indicated an overwhelming percentage against further consideration of status quo.

George Casteel said that Dail had a right to be disappointed.

Cinema-Dine Closed To Make Way For New Freeway

Romance may have returned to patio settees this week in Lemon Grove as "Bull" (Ira) Durham announced the closing of the Lemon Grove Cinemadine effective as of July 31.

The State Department of Highways recently purchased the property through which they expect to run the new Lemon Grove freeway. Work will start this fall on sections of the new thoroughfare and residences and business places in the line of route are being removed. Actually the road will go through the former popcorn and soft drink stand of the theatre.

The Cinemadine was opened November 16, 1948 and played to more than 200,000 persons a year until it closed.

The theatre is owned by Suburban Theatres Incorporated the president of which is Sam J. Russo who also operates the Campus on El Cajon Blvd.

Durham, who was a stockholder and manager, sold his holdings to Russo, he said, and plans to go into semi-retirement.

NEW STRUCTURE STARTED ON GROVE STREET

A new building on Grove Street near Broadway is under construction, it was announced this week by Louis Glaser, owner of the property.

The 35 by 42 foot building will be located at 3411-13 Grove and will house two business addresses.

One will be occupied by Barker Key and Sharpening Service and the other is available for rent. Barker will repair and sharpen mowers and saws, rent mowers, make keys, and later take on other types of mechanical repairs.

The building will be completed about mid-September according to Walter Thompson

Kiwanis-Lions Baseball Game For Pool Funds

A service club baseball game with the proceeds going to the Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Fund was jointly announced this week by the Lions and Kiwanis clubs.

The game is scheduled for the third Sunday in September and will be an afternoon game.

A series of allied events will be held in connection with the game according to Emmett Marshall, chairman of the Swimming Pool committee. One of the events is to be the presentation of a huge American flag, which has been flown over the U. S. capitol, to a local cub scout pack.

The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

For the misguided reader who thinks all is sweetness and light between the editor of this newspaper and the Department of Motor Vehicles, this will come as a rude awakening. It just ain't so! Neither sweetness nor light emanates from this corner and even the modicum of correspondence to me from Sacramento did not reduce the irritation the Department has produced in me and a great number of the readers of this paper.

Paul Mason, director of Motor Vehicles stated to me that personnel in the Motor Vehicles Department offices suffer from "stomach upset" and "ulcers" which he inferred was caused by "patience" in dealing with "the people." If they are half as frustrated with me as I am with them, they are entitled to all the ulcers they can gang up on the 22 feet of intestines their hot little bodies possess.

If Paul, or his San Diego representative, Beth Bennett, are seriously and sincerely interested in "the people," they will mend the ways of their department. Insolence from public servants is not intended nor desired by auto owners who pay the wages of some of these neuter little despots who man the windows of the San Diego department.

I'll not buy Mason's explanation concerning the state of poor health of the people under him. Bill Burkett, director of State Employment has done a remarkably good job with a department which once considered itself equally remote and superior to the people it served.

Let's take driver's licenses for example: Once they were issued for life. Later the life date was shortened, then shortened again, then a buck was charged, and now for two dollars you may expose yourself to an insult, and certainly you'll get a long wait after first being misdirected by one of the personnel, and you'll get a dose of this every four years.

A working stiff, if he wants to renew his license must take off at least half and usually a full day. Hell's Bells, the fine, if the driver is caught, is hardly ever as much as the pay loss. It follows then that the Department is making law-breakers out of drivers.

I've got a solution for Mason, if he's not too hard-headed to heed it . . . and it won't cost the department nor taxpayer an additional cent. What's more, it'll help ease the public's resentment.

After all, the Lemon Grove justice court holds sessions on Saturday mornings and some evenings for the convenience of taxpayers. The court is not required to do this, but it is done because the court recognizes the hardship that would be involved in making working men take a day's pay out of the weekly pay envelope. It, incidentally, is the only court in San Diego County to do so.

If the State will stagger hours and a day of its civil service employees so that licensing may be conducted at least one evening a week and on Saturday morning, it will be possible for our drivers to kill themselves along the far reaches of Highway 101 in a perfectly legal fashion.

Alarm over the increasing moral problems of a growing community were expressed last week by this group of church, school and law enforcement leaders.

What to do about it, and how to do about juvenile delinquency and other problems will be taken up at another meeting set for Tuesday, August 10.

The group making up last week's meeting are: Doris Alexander, representing VLM P-TA; Rev. Donald Jones, VLM Christian Church; Luther Hussey, judge of the Lemon Grove Justice Court; Fire Chief Harold Hensley; Fire Captain Raymond Carmody; Sheriff Sergeant Willard Rigley; School Superintendent Byron Netzley; (standing) Rev. Dan Apra, First Congregational Church; Rev. Don Cooke, Lemon Grove Methodist Church; Rev. Bruna Pueschel, Congregation Church.

Channing P. Mason, Trinity Presbyterian Church; Bonnie Nelson, M. H. P-TA; Ruth Magnusson, San Miguel P-TA and Louise Dail, Junior High P-TA.

Present at the meeting but not in the photograph were W. R. Robinson, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, and Max Goodwin, editor of the REVIEW.

Highlanders Men's Shop to Open Next Week

Friday, August 13 has been set for the opening date of Lemon Grove's newest men's shop, according to David Phair, operator of The Highlander Stores for Men.

Phair said that the store is designed to keep in step with more progressive ideas of local merchants in developing Lemon Grove into a top quality shopping center. He said that the shop would handle nationally known name brands such as Arrow shirts and underwear; Cooper underwear; Interwoven sox; Stetson hats; Pendleton wool shirts and jackets; Timely suits; White Stag jackets; Jarman and Nunn-Bush shoes; Swank jewelry; Hikock leather goods; Samsonite luggage; Day's slax and jackets and many other famous brands.

Ted Skelley has been named manager and he stated that he would follow the Highlander's tradition of sincere customer interest.

The new modern store building between Piggly Wiggly and Sprouse-Rietz was built by Harry Griffen for the firm. Large windows, air conditioning and heating will add to the comfort of shopping. Many innovations in fixtures have been developed for self-service convenience. Custom tailoring and alteration department for men's and women's clothing will also be a feature.

Phair said that Highlander would offer 30, 60 and 90 day charge accounts without carrying charges.

Pet Parade Set For Saturday, August 28

The Lemon Grove Children's Dressed Pet Parade will be held Saturday, August 28 at 2 p.m. and the parade will range east on Pacific Street, across Main and Imperial, along Golden Avenue to School Lane, ending in the school grounds, according to Arva Piepenbrink, parade committee chairman for the Chamber of Commerce.

Local business firms will contribute gift certificates which will be distributed to winners but there will be enough gifts to assure every young exhibitor of receiving something.

Only qualification is for the youngster to have a pet, dress him, or her, whatever the case may be, in any form whatsoever and be at the marshaling grounds at 2 p.m. Prizes will be awarded on the basis of the most interestingly dressed animals.

The parade route, necessarily, will be short. It will start near Buena Vista and Pacific, near the Mayfair corner and proceed east on Pacific about three blocks to School Lane and Golden where it will enter the school grounds. A pet program is planned at the school grounds judging area, Mrs. Piepenbrink said. Judge will be named later, as will prizes and donors.

The State Highway Patrol has promised adequate traffic protection for the youngsters and the whole event should be over by 4 p.m. Gift certificates will be redeemable the same day at Lemon Grove shops.

Contest Winners To Be Named Thursday

First winner of the Lemon Grove Camera Shop-Review picture contest will be announced next week. A copy of the winning print will be published along with the winner's name.

The contest rules are the simplest devised, any picture or negative, current or past is considered suitable for consideration. Any picture developed or printed at the Camera Shop is automatically entered in the contest.

Winners will receive a chicken or hamburger basket dinner at Richie's Drive In, 7309 Broadway; he'll get a swarzwalk cake from the Swedish Bakery at Mayfair Market; and he'll receive two tickets to the Grove Theatre.

Winners will be announced every week and prizes will be awarded from the Camera Shop which is located at 7848 Broadway.

There is no fun any more in living in an unincorporated area when we read that in Chula Vista a move is on to recall four of their five councilmen. And over in the Valley—the Imperial County Grand Jury indicted the Chief of Police of Calipatria and four others for extra official activities that were not according to Hoyle and Emily Post. Someone is always taking the joy out of life. Just think of the excitement we are missing!

Esther Jessen to Have Important Role Inn 'Ghosts'

With the forthcoming production of Henrik Ibsen's "Ghosts" August 14, 20, 21, 27, & 28, at Lemon Grove Cafetorium, the Heartland Players of Lemon Grove have gone far and wide to find one of the finest casts that could be found.

One of these is Esther Jessen, a graduate of the Alviene School of Dramatic Arts in New York City, and a trouper of the professional theatre. She played many engagements in Off-Broadway Try-outs, Stock, and Touring Companies throughout most of the forty-eight states, appearing in such memorable roles as "Kathleen" in "Smilin' Through" and "Mrs. Bramson" in "Night Must Fall."

Of more local origin, Esther has played with the Winter Playhouse in La Jolla, portraying Franc Schmidt in "The Animal Kingdom," and will be remembered for her portrayals of Regina in "Cought In The Villain's Web," and "Abby Brewster" in "Arsenic and Old Lace" in previous Heartland Players Productions. She plays the role of Mrs. Alving in the current production of Henrik Ibsen's "Ghosts."

Reaction to one of Lemon Grove's leading churches stand on juvenile problems centered about the sales of intoxicants to to minors came firm and fast last week when eighteen members of church, school, and law enforcement groups met Tuesday at the Junior High School.

Attention was focused on the entire law set-up in Lemon Grove following the First Baptist Church's mass meeting from which came a resolution of condemnation of the present juvenile-liquor set-up. The church, headed by Rev. Morris Mulkey, said that there was inadequate law enforcement to cope with area drinking problems but only because of the extra effort on the part of Sheriff Sergeant Willard Rigley, who has headquarters in the Justice Court building, does the problem remain under control at all.

While each of the representatives at Tuesday's meeting expressed deep concern regarding future developments, it was stated by the chairman of the group, Rev. Don Cooke, pastor of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church, that the initial meeting was to be informational and that solutions would be sought at the next and future metings. The next meeting will be Tuesday, August 10, at 2:30 at the same location.

Sergeant Rigley unveiled his personal file of approximately 500 names of local juveniles who had become enmeshed in the toils of the law during the past four years. Names were not given but the charges were described as "shocking."

It was also revealed that Sgt. Rigley was soon to be transferred by the sheriff's office which would cost Lemon Grove the benefit of his experience and interest.

Fire Chief Hensley pointed out that a juvenile program instituted by his department had reduced fire cals from 39 last year, to two this year, partly as a result of an educational program the department had sponsored. Rev. Apra said that adequate number of police with a sincere interest in youth problems could go far toward solving the local difficulties.

Judge Luther Hussey pointed out that local crimes of all types were increasing. Lawbreakers evidently know that our policing is spread pitifully thin, he asserted.

Channing Mason, representing the Trinity Church, said that too much secrecy had been wrapped around juvenile delinquencies. "It would shock most people to know the actual facts," he said. Byron Netzley, school superintendent, said that lack of policing intensified the problems of the local schools.

An eloquent plea for a solution to crimes concerning minors was made by a mother of a seven-year old girl who attended the meeting. Her daughter had been subjected to sex indignities a few days earlier.

Rev. LeRoy Elster of the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church stated that there were political considerations involved but insisted that a solution would have to be found regardless.

Rev. Cooke said the issues were moral ones and would have to be resolved on that basis even if local politics entered the picture.

Mary Curl, official of the Parent's Guild of St. John of the Cross, said that the situation was "deplorable" and that more policing was vital to keep the problem under control.

Grove Area, Cut Off By Freeway, Forms Sewer Group

A new group of local residents, interested in resolving the sewage problem in the American Homes area, formed the East Lemon Grove Improvement Association last week at the Youth Center and established a plan for battle for relief of the area's sanitation problems, according to F. Gigliotti, a member of the organization.

Named chairman was William E. Ash. Mrs. Tom Parker was elected vice president and Pearl Truett was named secretary.

The Lemon Grove freeway, which will separate the area in question from the rest of the Grove is being eyed first.

'SPIRIT' WILL BE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TOPIC

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." This thought from Galations (5:22,23) keynotes the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" in all Christian Science churches. It is the Golden Text.

Traffic Accident Record Worse Says David Thompson

For the second month in a row, San Diego County's highway fatality figure exceeded that of the same month for 1953, and the June record is the worst since August last year, David Thompson, executive director of the San Diego County Traffic Council announced today.

"Seventeen persons were killed on San Diego County highways during the past month as compared with 13 for 1953. The life saving margin of this year over last year, which had widened to 13 by May 18, now has dwindled to four as a result of the excessive deaths during the past six weeks," Thompson pointed out.

With one of the most critical periods of the year, the summer vacation months on hand, only extreme care and caution on the part of every driver and pedestrian will make possible any appreciable saving of lives, Thompson said.

DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT GETTING A HUMANIZING LOOK

SACRAMENTO — Girls attired in shorts and mothers accompanied by small children will get a more human treatment at the local offices of the California Department of Employment to claim unemployment insurance under a new policy put into effect today by Director of Employment William A. Burkett.

"For the past four or five years, disqualification for benefits was virtually automatic if a young woman entered the office wearing shorts or slacks instead of a dress, or a mother brought her youngsters with her," Burkett said. "The theory was that they were not available for work because they could not immediately report to a prospective employer. It didn't matter whether the office had a job to offer or not."

Burkett pointed out that a claimant "must be available for work" in order to obtain unemployment insurance, but added, "You can determine a person's availability without harassing him over trivial matters, which was what the practice instituted by my predecessor did."

The employment director explained that the original eligibility interview is the time to establish the claimant's availability for work. Any problem of child care the claimant may have can be resolved at that time."

Newspaper Ass'n Managers Converge On California

Practically every daily and weekly newspaper including the Lemon Grove Review, published in the United States will be represented at the 31st annual meeting of Newspaper Association Managers, Inc. which opens August 5 at Hotel del Coronado.

"Members of our Association who are planning to attend will represent virtually every one of 17,000 newspapers most of whom hold membership in both state and regional or national groups," reported NAM President Glenn McNeil, secretary-manager of the Tennessee Press Association.

Newspaper Association Managers, Inc. is composed of full-time executive directors of the trade business organizations—state, regional, and national—of the newspapers of the country. The California Newspaper Publishers Association will be the host. John Long is manager of the California organization.

The managers have an intensive four-day program planned.

Several of the managers are combining their vacations with this business trip and are bringing families to see the West, President McNeil explained. Those whose time table permits plan to tour California in a body immediately after the convention closes, this program having been arranged by Don Eck of The National Editorial Association.

Helix Cheerleaders . . . (First in a series of four). This week we switch over from our lovely future songleaders to the tough-throated quartet who'll lead Helix in its many yells. First we have Glen Crosbie, only holdover from last year. Glen is a member of the Key Club and La Mesa Hi-Y. This year he also claimed Chief Justice duties. Good ole Glen can be seen at any and every party in town. He's the extreme extrovert of the crowd.

Ellingtonia . . . Sunday 'fore last Mission Beach Ballroom was honored to have Duke Ellington and his famous band. July 26 was the date and the Duke played old 'n new favorites from 9 till 1. Some of the many tunes heard that night were "Band Call," "Moodindigo," "Jam With Sam," "Bunny Hop Mambo," "Skin Deep," and many, many others. Some of the familiar faces I saw out of my dance filled eyes were: Tom Sage 'n date; Sharon Sedlachek, Jim Terry; Mary Jane Mudd, Warren Gulko; Allene Shallcross, Bob Turnbull; Marie Meluno, Steve Clarkson; Nancy Martinez, Manuel Larrito; and Alan Oldfield and Don Sleet.

Helix Will Be Champs . . . (by Roger Conlee—Part two). "Highlanders' City League Problems Over"—With the switch of Helix to the Metro League this fall, the Highlanders will no longer have to face the tough City League. In the new circuit Helix will play against Chula Vista, Grossmont, Sweetwater, and Mar Vista. None of these schools are yet of the dominant type, which have a hex on their foes. But as the league is established, one school is likely to develop this trait, as a result of constant winning.

We have reason to hope that Helix will do this. It would certainly be a happy situation, if Highland teams could build up a reputation as a perrenial powerhouse, to be feared by Metro opponents. The potential is here. Our enrollment is exceeded by only one Metro school. The material is good. Many promising athletes here have shown a growing interest in our sports program.

The fact that our football stadium, because of superior facilities, will be used by other schools, is a start toward this goal. The coaching staff is competant and eager. Everything is favorable for Helix building up an athletic superiority. This writer feels the time is not far off when Helix alumni will be proud to say "I went to Helix," because of its athletic record.

Thanks Roger for writing such a fine article—B.T.

Modern Music . . . was heard recently at the Russ Auditorium on July 27. Don Howard was the m.c. of the show which was titled "Jazz A La Carte" and was presented by Mr. Irving Granz. Those seen there from out our way were Mary Jane Mudd, Frank Rose; Betty Jo Soderberg, Bill Morely; Allene Shallcross, Bob Turnbull; Bobbie Sable, Derald Cartain; Dick Conde 'n date; also, Bill Adams, Tony Mudd, Bob Dugan, Jerry Adome, Ron Fix, Jim Duschel, Buddy Davis, George Cooper, Ronnie Dennison, Elsa Haubensack, Warren Gulko, Merion Moulton, Carol Young and Sally Oehser. Music was provided by the Dave Brubeck quartet, Chet Baker and his group and Shorty Rogers 'n his Giants.

City Official is Wacky . . . That may be a blunt opening, but none the less it is a truthful one. I'm referring to a recent article in the San Diego Union that carried a report by the assistant City Planning Director, Harry C. Haelsig. In Mr. Haelsig's report (in which he brought out that Lemon Grove would be a bad risk to San Diego as far as annexing is concerned) he stated that of 36 miles of streets in the area, only 3.2 miles were of adequate width. I think Mr. Haelsig should recheck his calculations—I'd be willing to wager a small sum that we have less than 1.5 miles of streets of adequate width. And we can thank the nice people that run the road department for that. Our parents pay high taxes in order that we may have adequate roads to travel on. At times I think a lot of our streets resemble a cow path in the hills of Iran. No offense, mind you, but let's face it—and you know what I mean.

Our busy Business Women's League are at it again. A replica of the plaza is being built in miniature. It will have trees, shrubs, the surrounding buildings, and a working railroad to delight the children. This model is being built to show the people of Lemon Grove formulated plans for beautification and how funds will be used. All business people are urged to join the list of monthly donors. The special committee, so generously giving their time to build this model are; Mildred Huebsch, Ethel Oyler, Elsa Sanders, Jean Nichols, and President Pat Cole. Presentation and display of the model will be announced upon completion.

A board meeting of the BWL was held Tuesday nite at the home of Betty Runyon.

Thursday nite the ladies have been invited to a joint meeting with the Lions to hear all about annexation.

MARCH OF DIMES IN EMERGENCY DRIVE

An emergency March of Dimes campaign has been set for the last two weeks in August, it was announced this week by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Authorities stated that local and national funds had been used up in treating polio cases and developing vaccine.

"At present we are incurring expenses at the rate of $16,000.00 per month for patient care locally. It is impossible to reduce this amount," the San Diego chairman said.

The Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club which had spearheaded successful polio fund campaigns during the past two years has subscribed $200.00 contingent upon membership approval.

Other Lemon Grove Service Clubs will be requested to contribute.

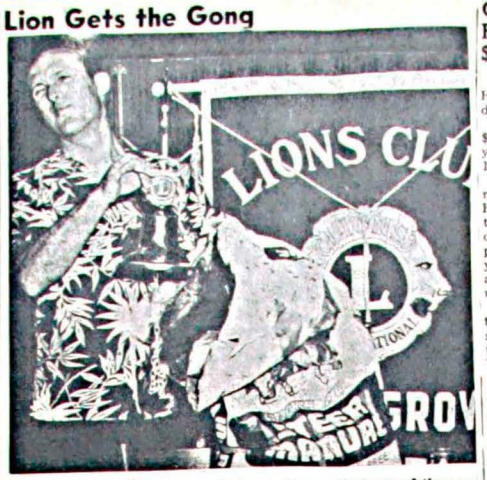
Lion Gets the Gong



The weekly Lion-O-Gram said it was the greatest gag of the year and told how Lemon Grove Lions had bested Kiwanis president Max Goodwin after stealing his name-plate badge and sent it back COD $24.75.

Picture above shows how Lion Member Emmett Marshall retrieved the gong from a package for which the Lions later paid Goodwin $24.75 with the understanding that their gong was therein. It was . . . and it now reposes on the Lions' podium, but not until after it was fumigated.

Sorry fact is that the gong was buried in the center of a bag of steer fertilizer, as the above picture attests.

Locan Man Defends 'Special' Parking For Handicapped

Tyler "Al" Drew, 7254 San Miguel, a handicapped driver and member of the local Chamber of Commerce charged this week that San Diego Chief of Police, Elmer Jansen was taking "a narrow viewpoint" on the ordinance extending public parking privileges to physically disabled drivers.

Law is that operators of "specially constructed" autos may obtain stickers for all day free parking in any metered stall.

Chief Jansen said that 178 such permits had been issued and charged that some abuses exist.

Drew said "among the advantages to continue free parking for physically handicapped, other than the humanitarian one is that it would be far cheaper for the city to lose this parking fee than it would be to have just one handicapped person forced to turn to the city for support if he should lose his lively hood due to the parking situation.

Death Rides With Golden Anniversary Couple

A Lemon Grove couple who recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, were involved in a Nebraska auto accident.

Killed outright was William Liebecke and his wife was hospitalized.

The couple, who resided at 2577 Massachusetts, had an open house anniversary at their home in Lemon Grove, Sunday July 11.

The accident occured at Johnstown Nebraska, when Leibecke attempted to pass a truck.

Bulen Cleared— Expresses Thanks

Ed Bulen, assemblyman of the 77th district, which includes Lemon Grove was exonerated of charges of "kickback" last week. His secretary claimed she was required to split her monthly wages with Mrs. Bulen.

Bulen's prepared statement released to various newspapers is as follows:

Through the deliberations of a jury I have been found not guilty of the charges against me and it has given me a deep feeling of gratitude for the opportunity which we all, as Americans, have to clear our names in our courts. This is the real meaning of justice the American way.

Neither Mrs. Bulen nor I have ever felt that we committed any dishonest act and we feel that this verdict is a complete vindication. The statement that "a man is innocent until proved guilty" has taken on a new meaning for me.

I would be remiss if I failed to mention and thank our many friends who drove to San Diego and back every day during the trial so they could comfort and support us.

Firm Develops De-Cricketizer

The firm of Langford and Long which recently reopened the Grove Theatre has been plagued by the chirping of crickets which presumably slipped past the ticket taker, and took up their abode behind the screen.

Using its knowledge of electronics, the firm developed a device called a "de-cricketizer" and the pests have been completely eliminated, reported Walt Long, of the firm. He denies they searched them out by radar.

BING CROSBY HANDICAP TO BE RUN SATURDAY

DEL MAR, California—From a near-record list of 15 nominations, a field of at least a dozen top sprinters will trek postward here Saturday in the $10,000 added Bing Crosby Handicap at six furlongs as Del Mar Turf Club winds up its first full week of thoroughbred racing.

The Bing Crosby, named in honor of Del Mar's founder and first president, has had eight previous runnings, and has been captured by such campaigners as Prevaricator, Cover Up, Blue Reading, Gustaf and Ode. Winner of this stake generally comes in for recognition as the sprint champion of the 41-day meeting.

Big Noise, who represents the entertainment world favorites, Harry James and Betty Grable, will be back this season endeavoring to snare the purse that eluded him last year when he finished second to G. I. Martin's Ode. Another horse making his second Bing Crosby appearance is the iron horse of California racing, Mr. and Mrs. N. Gordon Phillip's Stranglehold. Stranglehold was third last year.

The jobs pay $281 to $341 a month. Requirements are high school education, including a course in drafting, and six months of architectural or engineering drafting experience. Some substitution is allowed for those with additional experience or college training in these lines.

Application forms and additional information may be obtained from the Department of Employment on Columbia st.

Grossmont Hi School Board Approves $2½ Million Budget

Action at the Grossmont Union High School board meeting Monday night included the following:

They adopted a budget totalling $2,552,436 for the 1954-55 fiscal year compared to $2,220,069 for 1953-54.

An increase of 500 in the enrollment at Grossmont and Helix High Schools is responsible for the budget increase. Per pupil costs will be held to the $354 expended during the preceding year. The district tax rate will be approximately $1.00 which is 35c under the maximum authorized.

The board also took final action on naming of the new high school, reaffirming the previous tentative designation, El Cajon Valley High School.

Other actions by the board were:

Postponed sale of $200,000 of authorized bonds until needed for construction of high school for Lemon Grove, Spring Valley areas. Enrollment estimates indicate this school will be needed by 1958.

Decided not to increase number of fire insurance policies and agents pending investigation of formation of an insurance brokers association to put school insurance policies on a business-like basis.

Approved calling for bids on dairy products for cafeteria.

Awarded $5200 contract for steel fencing at Helix High to low bidder, Atlas Iron and Wire Works.

Approved resolution of intention to dedicate a street between Normal and University at Helix High to the City of La Mesa and contract for a portion of cost of improvement of the street. Included is a realignment of Normal Avenue to reduce traffic eastward from the rest of the high school grounds.

Acted to request the Grossmont Citizen's Advisory Committee to study and report back to the Board regarding policy on six specific problems.

At San Francisco, there is a position with the Public Utilities Commission as assistant transportation operations supervisor at $415 to $505. It calls for five years' railroad experience as brakeman, fireman or signal maintainer, or work on rolling stock.

At Sacramento, an assistant field representative is needed by the California Aeronautics Commission at a salary of $395 to $481, and at various state points there will be openings for deputy fire marshals at $358 to $436.

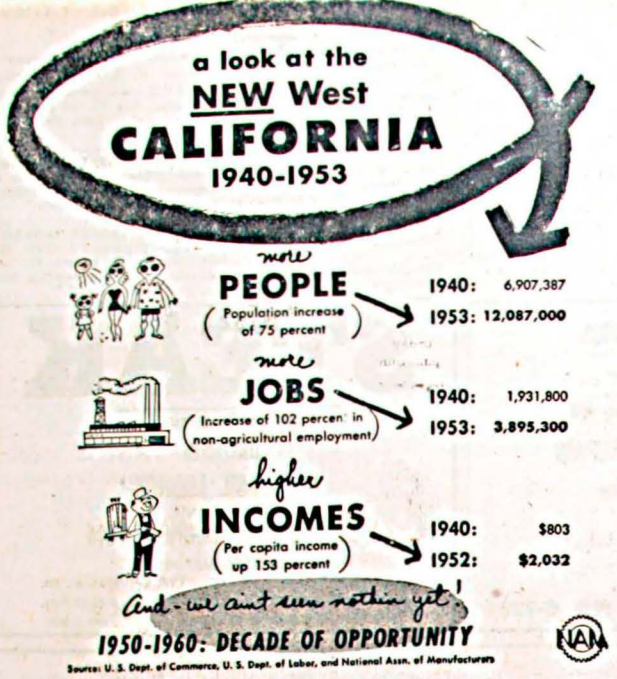
State Leadership Prospects Detailed in Opportunities



California is pictured as one of the Pacific Southwest states having top prospects in such growth factors as population, jobs and income by the National Association of Manufacturers.

N.A.M. outlines some of the major factors which establish this state as one of the leaders in the "Decade of Opportunity."

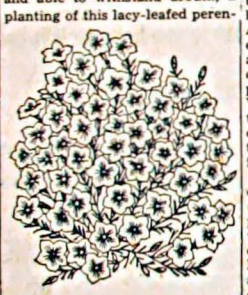
While the Nation as a whole is expanding, it is the Far West, the Pacific Southwest and this particular state which are proving to be trend leaders in rate of predicted growth.

Nowhere else, said the NAM, are the expansion factors so soundly based in prospects for such a rapid rate of growth as in this general area. It cautioned, however, that continued support of Government efforts toward economy, sound tax reform, domestic labor peace and international order, with emphasis on individual freedom of choice, responsibility and incentives for all segments of our society, are important conditions "to provide the climate for building a better America."

The NAM is conducting continuous studies and co-operation with key regional and local groups for "pulse taking," to encourage strong economic health, its spokesmen revealed, important to a free, industrial society and inquiries are invited to its Pacific Southwest Region offices at Suite 805, 3440 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles 5, California.

Nierembergia for Solid Purple Robe Down Path

Few perennials equal the prolific profusion of purplish-blue flowers borne by nierembergia—a flower of singular merit in Lemon Grove. Hardy, long-lived, and able to withstand drouth, a planting of this lacy-leafed perennial will provide a show of color that is amazing from early spring until late summer and even into the fall in many sections.



NIEREMBERGIA

Best used as a border plant with a contrasting strip of yellow or white or red, nierembergia is well fitted for this purpose. Growth is always tidy and a light trimming when the planting gets unshapely will return it to its desired size in short order with little or no set-back. The fern-like foliage is evergreen and will give an interesting texture of leaf pattern through the winter months.

Nierembergia is a sun plant and care should be given to this detail as otherwise the growth will be soft and bloom will be sparse. Also no extra fertilizing is needed. Insect control is not necessary as nierembergia seems to be one of the few plants that is completely free from insect enemies. With all of these virtues, plus the truly magnificent show of color, nierembergia would seem to warrant a place in every California garden.

With a little care niermbergia can be brought into bloom in pots or containers for use in patio planters. The color is too dark for use as an indoor plant but for outdoor use they show up excellently especially if combined with a white petunia, yellow marigold or some other good contrasting color. For this type of work they should be trimmed back at least twice before being allowed to bloom.

Auto Influx Dips, But Close to Record

At the halfway point of 1954 automobile influx into the Southland was slightly behind the record year of 1953, according to the Southern California Auto Club.

389,566 out-of-state passenger entered Southern California as of June 30 compared to the 415,832 cars with 1,126,756 persons at the same time last year.

Many authorities believe 1953's record auto influx was mainly attributable to the "emergency," whereas this year's influx, though less, is encouraging because it is taking place under more normal conditions.

All Breed Dog Show Date Set As August 29

Distribution of premium lists and entry blanks to Lemon Grove dog exhibitors for the annual Summer All Breed Dog Show Aug. 29 of the Silver Bay Kennel Club of San Diego has started, Jack Bradshaw, show superintendent, announced yesterday.

Five thousand lists and blanks will be issued thruout California, neighboring states and even to exhibitors in Canada, Hawaii, Mexico and South America. In San Diego they will be available at pet shops, veterinarians and the San Diego County Humane Society, which is cooperating wholeheartedly in the event. Ada Dellinger of El Cajon is in charge of the local distribution.

More than 70 different varieties will be shown from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Electric Building in Balboa Park. One of the finest slates of judges is promised by Bradshaw; the panel will include Percy Roberts of Connecticut who has officiated at all the nation's classics, including the dog shows in Madison Square Garden, New York. In a national poll of clubs, Roberts won the Fido award, which is the Oscar of dogdom; he was also named Judge of the Year.

One of the most extensive lists of trophies ever posted for a Southland dog show is expected to bring many of the nation's pedigreed dogs here for the show.

Special emphasis will be given specialty shows, says Bradshaw, the Cocker Spaniel, Boston Terrier, Boxer and Staffordshire Terrier Clubs already making plans for outstanding shows.

Ratner Recommends . . . Here are this week's recommended records: "Take Everything But You" and "In the Chapel in the Moonlight" by Kitten Kallen (DECCA). Also "The Old Cabaret" & "Sweetheart" by The Hilltoppers (DOT).

Local . . . In the days of the crank-type telephone, it was common practice to ask Central everything from the time of day to where's the fire? The town of Hull, England, the only British city with a privately owned telephone system, now boasts a refinement of this procedure. People dialing a certain number hear extracts from current local vaudeville shows and movies. It helps them decide where to go to be entertained.

Hic! . . . A good and vaguely true account of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest (Papa) Hemingway's airplane crash in the African jungle, is to be put on records by Columbia. Featuring Mr. & Mrs. Jose (Clooney) Ferrer on lyrics composed by Ogden Nash—"A Bunch of Bananas and a Bottle of Gin"— the disk will open with the rousing sounds of a crashing plane followed by the Ferrers' dissertation on gin and bananas. Nash has penned lyrics before but never a pop tune. The whole thing may appear shortly as a novel under the tentative title, "The Old Man and The Turntable."

Record Round-Up . . . Here are this weeks top rhythm & blues disks. (1) "Honey Love," Clyde McPhatter. (2) "Work With Me Annie," Midnighters. (3) "Sh-Boom," Chords. (4) "Shake, Rattle & Roll," Joe Turner. (5) "Just Make Love to Me," Muddy Waters. (6) "Sexy Ways," Midnighters. (7) "Please Believe Me," Johnny Ace. (8) "I Feel So Bad," Chuck Willis. (9) "If I Loved You," Roy Hamilton. (10) "Goodnight Sweetheart," Spaniels.

LINDA DARNELL, Hollywood actress—"Kissing a man with a mustache or a beard is like falling face downward on a broom."

MAYFAIR Quality Is Consistant-Prices Are Low

Hardly any of MAYFAIR'S expanding family of regular customers fail to leave our market without some expression of pleasure.

That is important to you because it is proof that when your friends and neighbors say it, it's so.

Douglas and Peggy Maloney, 852 Billoa Drive, are regular Mayfair shoppers. With two of their three children (Marianne, 3 and Marcella, 17 months) in tow they were quick to assess the advantages of Mayfair operation. "I know that Mayfair keeps living costs down," Douglas said. "I get into markets and restaurants and have a good chance to compare prices. We paid 91c for Spry the week before Mayfair started the market. Now it is 88c."

He is a milkman for Arden Dairies. The couple has another child at home, Mark, 2 months.

The healthy, happy family of Robert and Dixie Jump, 9113 Olive Dr., Spring Valley, always make a fun-tour out of a shopping trip at Mayfair. As proof of this fun, this is the way Dixie, Bobby, Dixie (Jr.), Randy and Candee looked when they took the tour soon after Mayfair took the market over.

"We noticed a reduction of several cents a pound on White Rose potatoes," Dixie said. "Our family is a big one and we use a lot of them. That savings looks good to us." Robert, her husband, is a bread truck driver.

Florence Massa, 523 Garfield Place, El Cajon, eyes the Blue Ribbon steak at the meat department of Mayfair.

"My husband, Leo, likes Mayfair meats," she reported. "We find the quality is consistently good." Mr. Massa is a partner of Suttner's Appliances, one of the county's important appliance marts. The couple has married children and the family gets together frequently. "Mayfair prices are lower," Mrs. Massa said. "V-8 vegetable juice, formerly 41c, has been reduced to 39c."

Kenneth Ferguson, semi retired property owner of Mt. Helix, is a regular patron at Mayfair Markets. He lives at 9269 Lemon Avenue with his wife and two daughters, Terry, 8 and Tracy, 7 months.

"I think savings are dramatic when you get a staple item like Starkist Tuna for 32c the day after Mayfair took over the market. The day before it was 35c."

Ferguson is the owner and operator of the Las Tropicanas apartments in La Mesa.

William "Bill" Rawlinson, 10541 Campo Road, Spring Valley, is receiving manager of Mayfair Market. It is his responsibility to see that the groceries, fruits and vegetables are promptly put on the shelves.

"There is hardly an hour lost between the time the shipment arrives, and when it is available for customer purchase," he said. "That is one of the success secrets of our market. We get it to the user quicker and cheaper."

AUTO CLUB RELEASES NEW SOUTHLAND MAP WITH LEMON GROVE ON IT

A new map covering almost all of the 13 counties of Southern California is now available to Auto Club members and out-of-state visitors, the Automobile Club of Southern California announced today.

Listed as "Portion of Southern California," the new map covers an area from Visalia and vicinity south to the Mexican border and includes the southern area of Nevada and the northwest portion of Arizona as well as of all of San Diego County. Lemon Grove is listed on it.

"It took about two years of work by 11 men to make this five-color map," said a club spokesman.

JOHN F. SPAULDING, sales exec., addressing hardware retailers convention in S. F.—"Installment buying is as American as baseball. It is as sound as the whole system of free enterprise."

Animal Drawn Vehicles Have Right of Way

"Every motorist must slow down and stop if necessary to avoid striking any horse drawn vehicle, any ridden animal or any livestock that may be upon the roadway," explained Captain H. W. Clodfelter, Commander of the San Diego County California Highway Patrol unit.

Captain Clodfelter pointed out that the individual in charge of the animal or animals may request the motorist to yield and the motorist is then bound by law to comply.

"This law is intended to protect any animal or livestock on a roadway and to insure the safety of any person driving or riding such animal or in charge of such livestock," explained Patrolman William Howell, State officer assigned to this district.

He too had been led to believe it (the survey) could be produced quickly. "Maybe we've been overestimating San Diego's abilities," he said.

Frenchy Faucher, Grove postmaster, pointed out that information on incorporation was on file at the chamber of commerce office where the Citizen's Advisory Committee had left 500 booklets representing nearly a full year's study. "It looked like incorporation was best a year ago and it looks even better now," he said.

Jackson Ammons, realtor, called for a public meeting on the issue and it was revealed that the chamber of commerce had set such a meeting for Tuesday, August 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the high school cafetorium.

Dr. Frank Gigliotti made an impassioned plea for "incorporating, and incorporating right now. We are not going to become the tail of a dog like Encanto," he stated.

Charles Kerch, dealer in business property and who has handled some of the biggest local transactions in Lemon Grove said "San Diego City Planning, under annexation, would take away one of our most valuable assets to business . . . our parking. As a corporate city with control over parking, business property values would rise and that would be healthy for the entire community."

Judge Luther Hussey again reminded the club of the growing case load of crimes in the local court. "We need police protection," he said.

"We are already paying a high tax rate," charged Stephen Westover, local lumber retailer. "We should decide what services we want, then ascertain the best means for acquiring them. The 'best means' by my interpretation is the means by which taxes would be lowest."

Dr. Frank McKinney said that he did not feel that the peril in status quo was as great as pictured. He cast the only dissenting vote of the discussion.

Rev. Dan Apra followed CPA-man Bert Betts in requesting chairman Griffen to alow status quo to come to a decision.

The Men's Club will discuss annexation versus incorporation this week, Griffen announced.

HO 6-3745

Next Monday morning at 10 o'clock the Lemon Grove branch of the Red Cross will hold its regular August meeting according to Vice Chairman Mrs. Walter H. Eager who is scheduled to preside in the absence of Mrs. G. R. Roberts.

These meetings are held at the Woman's clubhouse, 2810 Main st., Lemon Grove and every Red Cross member is welcome to attend. They will not be called upon to speak although if they have any ideas or suggestions for the good of our organization, we shall be glad to receive them. So if you think you might wish to come, don't wait for a more formal invitation, just come and at least, see for yourself.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

It seems that there may be some confusion in some of your readers' minds as a result of the affair, involving a troupe of actors called the "Grove Players," at the recent re-opening of the Grove Theater.

That group, of which my friend Don Carl is director, has no connection with the local little theater group known as "The Heartland Playerse of Lemon Grove," of which I am the supervising director.

The Heartland Players are continuing, with fine prospects of unusual success, their work on their coming production, the great dramatic tragedy, "Ghosts," by Henrik Ibsen. We will present the play for the public in the new Lemon Grove Junior High School Cafetorium on School Lane, starting on Saturday, August 14th, and continuing on the two following weekends, August 20th and 21st, and August 27th and 28th.

We are an entirely unaffiliated, amateur dramatic organization, striving to bring the best theatrical entertainment to our community.

Sincerely,
Bud Coffin
Supervising Director
The Heartland Players of Lemon Grove

Civil Defense
By CHARLES GURLEY

Another reminder to the officers or program chairmen of local service clubs that the film for Operation Ivy, the one which shows such a beautiful portrayal of the hydrogen bomb tests recently made in the Pacific is available to them if they wish it shown to their group, announced Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti yesterday.

"Any who wish to use this film, please telephone me at HO 6 5809 and we will even be glad to furnish an operator," said Dr. Gigliotti, "and also I wish to let the folks know that "Skip" Heidick has accepted appointment of Chief of Staff, and will have full charge of operational organization. Right now "Skip" is at reserve camp at Fort Ord where he will be for another two weeks.

"When he returns he will receive the cooperation of Admiral Roy Rogers, Chief Warden for the Ground Observation Corps and between them we expect to benefit considerably from their joint efforts."

Just another reminder there will be no August meeting for Civil Defense in Lemon Grove. Our next will be September 7.

JOHN BLANK WINS DANCE CONTEST PRIZE

The Dancin' Dudes of Lemon Grove had their usual enjoyable square dance Friday last at St. John of the Cross Hall. Ron East, Heartland Association President, once again pleased the friendly Dudes with his top notch square dance calling. Pete Mighetto, club caller, entertained and instructed in his inimitable style that maker square dancing with the Dude such a pleasure. John Blank was the lucky winner of the prize cake. Official greeters were the popular Osterbergs, Micky (the boss) and Arlie (the master). Refreshments at the end of the activities were in charge of the capable four-some of Ann and Bill Edwards and June and Bill Bierly.

REV. BARTLETT RETURNS FROM VACATION

The Rev. J. Phillip Bartlett has returned from vacation, and St. Philip's Episcopal Church is forging ahead on its autumn and winter program for spiritual development, fellowship, and growth.

During August services will be held at 8:00 a.m. and 9.30 a.m., omitting the 11 o'clock service. There will be no regular Church School classes, but an adult will be in attendance to care for any children in the Church rooms.

The Altar Guild has established a Memorial and Anniversary fund to which anyone may contribute.

On Tuesday, the third of the summer series of card parties will be held by the Woman's Auxiliary. Refreshments will be served at 12:30 p.m., and table and door prizes are planned. Mrs. E. F. Cochrane will be hostess.

At the Harvest Festival to be held in Autumn, Mrs. Wallace T. Heath will be in charge of the Gift Booth, from which may be chosen all manner of hand-made aprons, clothing, linens, and gifts. A Fun Strip will attract the young people.

THREE PIANOS FOR SUMMER CONCERT

A triple piano concerto, with three of the nation's top pianists at the keyboards, will highlight next Tuesday's Summer Symphonies in Balboa Park Bowl, San Diego.

Lyell Barbour, of Escondido; John Wustman, New York, and Howard Wells, Pasadena, will present Bach's Triple Piano Concerto in D Minor as one of four musical masterpieces which will be heard on the program, the fifth of the current series conducted by the incomparable Robert Shaw.

Barbour also will play Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 4. The program will conclude with Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet."

Sharing the spotlight with the pianists will be Howard Brubeck, San Diego musician, who was commissioned by the Symphony Association to compose the opening number, entitled "Overture to the Devil's Desciple" which will raise the curtain at 8:30 p.m

LLOYD GALLOWAY, confessing theft of Rubens painting from S. F. art museum—"When my sons grow up and go out to the museum to see that thing, they can point at it and say, 'My daddy stole that picture!' "

PERT POLITICO — Marlo Lee, "Miss 102" title contender from Shelter Island, a television commercial actress, is campaigning for votes which will bring her that longed for crown of "Miss 102," along with a $10,000 year's contract, an M.G. sports car and open the door to fame and success.

CHARLES L. FOX, La Jolla—"Our country's experience in blowing billions on foreign aid should convince us that our money, while it talks, does not convince."

ANDREW C. GEER, Oakland fiction author—"I took my first step toward a writing career in college by flunking freshman English."

STATE EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT EASES LAW INTERPRETATION

Burying relatives no longer will bar unemployed persons from receiving unemployment insurance, William A. Burkett, director of the California Department of Employment, announced last week.

"Since 1946, previous administrators of the department have ruled that an unemployment insurance claimant must be available for work on every day of his normal working week, to remain eligible for benefits," Burkett said. "In normal situations, such a policy is reasonable. But when it is enforced to the expense of an individual's personal rights, we should take steps to restore realism and humanity to administration of the law.

"The law was designed to help people when they need help," he pointed out.

Burkett stated the rigid adherence to the letter of the law, which was favored by his predecessors, resulted in denial of benefits to persons on what he termed "unfair technicalities." Many claimants, he said, were found unavailable for work because they had spent all or part of one day attending funeral services for relatives, appearing in court as witnesses, and in other necessary humane or civic activities.

DeVERE BAKER, Petaluma, captain of raft Lehi—"As far as I'm concerned there are no brave men, just those who are able to contain their fears a little better than others."

History on the Half Shell—The Mason and Dixon Line was the southern boundary line which separated the Free State of Pennsylvania from what were at one time the Slave States of Maryland and Virginia. The boundary was fixed by Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon, English astronomers and surveyors. The REVIEW makes no claim of direct descent for either of the columnists masquerading under similar titles, but would like to point out that the Dixon Line reached Quogue, Long Island, N. Y., last week with suitable acknowledgement. The Mason Line evidently fell by the wayside.
